Version 1: 2024

Effective Periods Beginning 1 January 2011

NZ IFRIC 14: NZ IAS 19 - THE LIMIT ON A DEFINED BENEFIT ASSET, MINIMUM FUNDING REQUIREMENTS AND THEIR INTERACTION

Although every effort is made to provide accurate and timely information, there can be no guarantee that such information is accurate as of the date it is received or that it will continue to be accurate in the future. No one should act upon such information without appropriate professional advice after a thorough examination of the particular facts and circumstances of the situation. © 2024 BDO New Zealand Limited. All Rights Reserved. For more information visit www.bdo.nz. ISSUES SCOPE NZ IFRIC 14 applies to all post-employment The issues addressed in NZ IFRIC 14 are: defined benefits and other long-term employee • When refunds or reductions in future contributions should be regarded as available in accordance with paragraph 58 of NZ IAS 19 - Employee Benefits (asset ceiling). defined benefits. · How a minimum funding requirement might affect the availability of reductions in future contributions . When a minimum funding requirement might give rise to a liability. CONSENSUS Availability of a refund or reduction in future contributions The effect of a minimum funding requirement on the economic benefit available as When a minimum funding requirement may give rise to a reduction in future contributions a liability • An entity determines the availability of a refund or a reduction in future contributions in accordance with the terms and conditions of • An entity analyses any minimum funding requirement at a given date into If an entity has an obligation under a minimum funding the plan and any statutory requirements in the jurisdiction of the contributions that are required to cover any existing shortfall for past service on the requirement to pay contributions to cover an existing plan. minimum funding basis and future service. shortfall on the minimum funding basis in respect of services already received, the entity determines • An economic benefit, in the form of a refund or a reduction in future Contributions to cover any existing shortfall on the minimum funding basis in respect whether the contributions payable will be available as a contributions, is available if the entity can realise it at some point of services already received do not affect future contributions for future service. refund or reduction in future contributions after they during the life of the plan or when the plan liabilities are settled. If there is a minimum funding requirement for contributions relating to future are paid into the plan. service, the economic benefit available as a reduction in future contributions is the To the extent that the contributions payable will not be sum of: The economic benefit available as a refund - The right to a refund available after they are paid into the plan, the entity - Any amount that reduces future minimum funding requirement contributions for recognises a liability when the obligation arises. • A refund is available to an entity only if the entity has an future service because the entity made a prepayment (i.e. paid the amount before unconditional right to a refund: being required to do so); and - During the life of the plan, without assuming that the plan - The estimated future service cost in each period, less the estimated minimum liabilities must be settled in order to obtain the refund; or funding requirement contributions that would be required for future service in - Assuming the gradual settlement of the plan liabilities over time those periods if there were no prepayment as described above. until all members have left the plan; or • An entity estimates the future minimum funding requirement contributions for - Assuming the full settlement of the plan liabilities in a single event service taking into account the effect of any existing surplus determined using the (i.e. as a plan wind-up). minimum funding basis but excluding the prepayment described in paragraph 20(a). An entity uses assumptions consistent with the minimum funding basis and, for any An unconditional right to a refund can exist whatever the funding factors not specified by that basis, assumptions consistent with those used to level of a plan at the reporting date. determine the defined benefit obligation and with the situation that exists at the reporting date as determined by NZ IAS 19. The economic benefit available as a contribution reduction • If the future minimum funding requirement contributions for future service exceeds • If there is no minimum funding requirement for contributions relating the future NZ IAS 19 service cost in any given period that excess reduces the amount to future service, the economic benefit available as a reduction in of the economic benefit available as a reduction in future contributions. However, future contributions is the future service cost to the entity for each the amount described per paragraph 20(b) can never be less than zero. period over the shorter of the expected life of the plan and the expected life of the entity. The future service cost to the entity excludes amounts that will be borne by employees.

TIER 2 NZ IFRS RDR REPORTERS

NZ IFRS RDR Reporters are required to comply with NZ IFRIC 14 in full.